

The general principles of smoke control

Smoke control systems, which include smoke ventilation and smoke containment, save lives and help protect property.

This presentation covers:

- An overview of the history of Smoke Control
- Legislation and the use of smoke control in the construction industry, including basic principles and guidelines for the main applications, including:
 - Single Storey Buildings
 - Shopping Centres
 - Atria
 - Fire fighting shafts
 - Apartment buildings
 - Car Parks

